Jennifer,

As of January 2014, I have a new title, which is Director of Pollinator Safety. I also added the "LP" to the end of Bayer CropScience to distinguish the US-based subsidiary which I work for from Bayer CropScience AG, which is based in Germany.

Author affiliations: David Fischer is Director of ~~Environmental Toxicology and Risk Assessment~~ Pollinator Safety at Bayer CropScience LP.

Thomas Moriarty is a Team Leader in the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Pesticide Re-Evaluation Division.

Hi Tom, Dave,

Here is the last of it! I told Justin we would send this back WITH Chapter 8 no later than Wednesday.

Call with any questions or concerns. I will collate edits in my version, as with the other proofs.

All the best,
Jen

Subject: Pollinators Back Cover Copy

Hi Jen,

One last piece of material that we need your (and the editors') review on, is the draft of the back cover copy. Attached is my preliminary draft of the copy. Would it be possible for you, David and Thomas to review and provide feedback?

Once this is finalized, we should be in good shape to get the project finalized and to the printer soon.

If possible, it would be great to have feedback next week. If you have any questions, just let me know.

Best wishes,

Justin
